

END OF SOCIAL SEASON--LENTEN SEWING CLASSES BEGIN

Photo Copyright by Marceau.
Miss Harriett McAlpin—from a pastel by Pierre Tartoue.

Photo by Aime Dupont.
Miss Hazen Symington.

Photo by Marceau.
Miss Ella M. Lindley.

SOCIETY'S CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK.

MONDAY—Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, a dance for Miss Edith Mortimer, Sherry's.
Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, 25 East Seventy-eighth street, a dinner for the Duke and Duchess of Manchester.
Gen. Horace Porter, 277 Madison avenue, a dinner.
Miss Mary Pinchot Eno, 56 East Fifty-seventh street, afternoon reception. Dance for the benefit of the Manassas Industrial School, under the patronage of Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin, Mrs. Henry Villard and others, St. Regis.
TUESDAY—Mardi Gras ball for the benefit of the Lisa Day Nursery, Hotel Biltmore.
Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, 2 West Fifty-second street, a dinner.
Mrs. William Salomon, 1020 Fifth avenue, a dance.
Gen. and Mrs. Howard Carroll, 4 East Sixty-fourth street, a dinner and theatre party for Miss Caramel Carroll.
Performance of "Sanctuary," a bird masque, Hotel Astor, 9 P. M.
Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Palmer, 922 Fifth avenue, a dinner at Delmonico's. Morality play for the benefit of the East Side Society, by amateurs, the Plaza.
WEDNESDAY—Talk on "I Giotelli della Madonna," by Howard Brockway, for the benefit of East Side House, home of Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley, 600 Park avenue, 3 P. M.
THURSDAY—Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, 3 East Sixty-fourth street, a dinner.
Meeting of the sewing class for the benefit of the Catholic Institute for the Blind, home of Mrs. Jacob L. Phillips, 49 East Sixty-seventh street, 41 A. M.
FRIDAY—A lecture on "Court Life of the Nineteenth Century," by Charles Gibson of Boston, home of Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell, 25 East Sixty-second street, 4 P. M.
Meeting of the Girls' Branch of the Public Schools Athletic League, home of Mrs. James Speyer, 1058 Fifth avenue, 4 P. M.
Meeting of the sewing class for the benefit of the Madonna Day Nursery, home of Miss Leary, 1032 Fifth avenue, 11 A. M.
SATURDAY—Mrs. J. Todhunter Thompson, 10 East Seventy-eighth street, a dinner.
Mrs. Henry Clows, 27 West Fifty-first street, a dinner.
Mrs. Carl von Mayhoff, 59 East Thirty-fourth street, an afternoon bridge party.

Continued from First Page.

will be given for the benefit of the City History Club, of which Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn is president. "Prince Karl" had not been played in this city since the death of Richard Mansfield, who first presented it to the New York public in May, 1896. Cecil Butler, who was Mr. Mansfield's director for many years, will stage the production. Young women of society will sell specially illustrated souvenir programme and flowers, and after the performance tea will be served on the stage. Miss Grace George will preside at the tea table and Miss Constance Collier and other actresses will assist. Afterward there will be general dancing.
Mrs. S. Stanwood Menken will be in charge of the flower girls, who will include the Misses Augusta Dixon, Margaret Porter, Star Paris, Louise Dixon and Cordelia Hepburn. Seats at $3 and $5 and boxes at $20 and $25 may be obtained of Mrs. Hepburn, at 205 West Fifty-seventh street, or at the Playhouse box office.

An entertainment will be given in the assembly room of the Automobile Club of America on Tuesday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the New York City Association for the Boy Scouts of America. Mrs. John Purroy Mitchell, wife of the Mayor; Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell, Mrs. C. C. Cuyler, Mrs. Charles D. Dickey, Mrs. William Fellows Morgan, Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, Mrs. Lorillard Spencer and Mrs. Stuart Duncan are among those interested in the entertainment. There will be moving picture films showing "A Boy Scout in the Making." The entertainment will be of great interest to children and grown folks alike.
Cards of admission may be obtained from the members of the honorary reception committee or at the headquarters of the New York City Council, 30 Madison avenue.

The third and last of the series of talks on current operas by Howard Brockway for the benefit of the music school of the East Side House Settlement will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley, 600 Park avenue. The subject will be Wolf-Ferrari's "I Giotelli della Madonna." Mr. Brockway will illustrate his talk at the piano. Some of the members of the women's auxiliary and music committees of the settlement are Mrs. William H. Boardman, Mrs. R. Burnham Moffatt, Mrs. Lucien H. Tyng, Miss Julia Ryle and Miss Miriam Blagden.

Mrs. James Speyer has given her new home at 1058 Fifth avenue for the annual meeting of the girls' branch of the Public Schools Athletic League on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting will be more than a business session, as there will be several entertaining features introduced to interest those who are helping along the work of the league, which provides healthful recreation for the children in the public schools.

Dr. Luther H. Gulick and Miss Elizabeth Burchenal, who have been active in conducting the affairs of this organization, will be among the speakers. Mrs. William Adams Delano, Mrs. Walter P. Bliss, Mrs. J. Mages Ellsworth, Mrs. Reginald de Koven and Miss Margaret D. Leverich will be among those who will attend.

In order to raise funds to help carry on their work of preventing tuberculosis, women of society who compose the women's auxiliary to the New York Department of Health Tuberculosis Clinic have bought up a large number of seats and boxes for the Paderewski concert in Carnegie Hall on March 7. The seats at $5 each and boxes at $100 are now on sale and may be obtained of Mrs. Joseph Earle Stevens, 71 Park avenue, who is chairman of the committee in charge of this charity. Others on the committee are Mrs. J. W. Fuller, Potter, Mrs. Peter Stuyvesant Pillot, Mrs. William Ross Proctor, Mrs. Reginald Pincke, Mrs. Oren Root, Mrs. George C. Clark, Jr., Mrs. Greenville Emmet, Mrs. Gifford A. Cochran, Mrs. Robert C. Pruyn, Mrs. J. Allen Harriman, Mrs. J. Hopkinson Smith, Jr., Miss Beatrice Bend and Miss Ruth V. Twombly. The committee has taken this means of raising funds because the auxiliary is in need of money to carry on its work. There is an annual subscription supported by the members and others, but this does not cover all the expenses that must be met, as the work is of a wide scope. The members of this auxiliary do active work in their respective districts throughout the city. Though the object itself is under the direction of the Department of Health, the auxiliary does much to carry on the work for the prevention of the tubercular disease.

There are several tubercular clinics in the city and each clinic chairman works in the district with a nurse in charge. They visit homes, direct the improvement of conditions that will lead to the prevention of disease, send children to the Preventorium and to the camp and shacks supported by the auxiliary and in every way attend to the prevention of tuberculosis.

Miss Beatrice Bend is the chairman of the auxiliary, and among the other officers are Mrs. Herman Blags, Mrs. Charles A. Frank, Mrs. Oren Root, Mrs. Albert H. Harris, Miss Helen Brice, Miss Ruth Twombly and Miss Katherine McClure.

The announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Frederic Bronson and Adrian Iselin and their marriage, which was so quietly celebrated on Thursday morning at the rectory of St. Patrick's Cathedral, surprised society greatly. Since her widowhood Mrs. Bronson has lived much abroad, although recently she built a new home in Park avenue. The wedding of Thursday morning was very informal, invitations having been verbal and there being present less than a score of relatives and friends. Among them were Mrs. Egerton L. Winthrop, Jr., Miss Muriel Winthrop, Mrs. William Kernochan, Mrs. Robert Winthrop, Egerton L. Winthrop and Bronson Winthrop, who are relatives of the bride and the bride's son-in-law, Lloyd C. Griscom, ex-Ambassador to Italy. There were also present the various members of the Iselin family who are in New York. It was a mixed marriage, as the bride had not changed her religion before marrying.

It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Iselin will be for part of the summer in Newport, where Mr. Iselin has for several seasons leased one of the Pinard villas for the month of August. His country place is at Davenport's Neck, New Rochelle.

Of interest to society was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Laura Cass Canfield, daughter of Mrs. Frank Gray Griswold by a former marriage, to Henry S. Hooker of this city. Miss Canfield, who was introduced to society several years ago, is a daughter of the late Augustus Cass Canfield and a granddaughter of the late Capt. Augustus Canfield.

Mr. Hooker, like his fiancée, is prominent in society in this city and Tuxedo. He is a son of the late Capt. Richard Campbell Hooker, U. S. N., and a grandson of the late United States Senator William M. Stewart. Mr. Hooker was graduated from Yale in 1902. He was captain of the freshman crew during his college term and was a member of the junior crew that defeated Harvard in 1901. He is a member of the Union, Racquet, Tennis and Tuxedo clubs.

No date has been mentioned for the wedding. Miss Symington left early last week with her parents for Miami, Fla., to remain several weeks.

Another engagement recently announced was that of Miss Hazen Symington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Symington, to George de Forest Lord of this city. Miss Symington, who was introduced to society two years ago, is a granddaughter of Mrs. William Hamilton Harris. Her brothers are William H. Symington and James M. Symington, who is a student at Yale.

Mr. Lord is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Butler Lord of Lawrence, L. I., and this city, and a brother of Franklin B. and Edward C. Lord. He is a senior at Yale.
No date has been mentioned for the wedding. Miss Symington left early last week with her parents for Miami, Fla., to remain several weeks.

Pratt, Edward H. Landon and Francis G. Landon.
Mr. Pyne is a great-grandson of the late Moses Taylor of this city. He was graduated from Princeton in 1904 and is a member of the Union, Racquet, Country and Tuxedo clubs. His brother is Percy R. Pyne 2d.

Among the engagements recently announced was that of Miss Ella M. Lindley, daughter of Dr. Charles L. Lindley, formerly of Cape Town, South Africa, and now of Lakewood, N. J., to William Edgar Baker, Jr., of this city. Miss Lindley passes a great deal of her time with her grandmother, Mrs. Nicoll Floyd of Mastic, L. I. No date has been set for the wedding.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Howard Duffield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Winifred Duffield, to David Wilson of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement was announced in Albany last week of Miss Gertrude Thomson Douglas, daughter of Curtis Noble Douglas, Public Service Commissioner, and Mrs. Douglas, to Frederick G. Peabody of Albany. Miss Douglas is a niece of ex-Governor and Mrs. John A. Dix and with her parents formerly lived in this city.

The season of dancing is not over, although there will not be any very large dances. There has recently been organized by Miss Annabella S. Olyphant a series of three subscription dinner dances to be given in the ballroom of the Gotham on March 4, 5 and April 17. The patronesses are Misses Donn Barber, Edward A. Manice, Henry Burden, Dr. Lancelotti Nicoll, Adams Batcher, Huntington Norton, Arthur J. Cumcock, Bradish Johnson Carroll, John Hansen Rhodes, Frederick F. Carey, J. Rich Steers, Harry H. Duryea, Henry G. Trevor, Lawrence Greer, Lindsey Tappin, Oliver Harriman, McLane Van Ingen, Garrett B. Kip, J. Lorimer Worden, J. Prentice Kellogg, George K. B. Wade, James P. Lee and C. Grosvenor Wyeth.

The dances of the Friday Evening Club at the Vanderbilt will continue until March 13.

The Rev. Percy Stickney Grant will give a series of lectures at the home of Miss Grace Wilkes, 16 Washington Square, North, on Thursdays in March at 11 A. M. The subject of the first will be "Browning's Art." Tickets may be obtained of Miss Wilkes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould left for Jekyll Island, Ga., on Thursday, where they expect to remain a month.

Mrs. William W. McAlpin recently gave a musicale at 119 West Forty-second street, the studio of Pierre Tartoue of Paris, where was exhibited a portrait of her daughter, Miss Harriett McAlpin, who is an accomplished musician. Miss McAlpin sang on that occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze will remain at their home, 5 East Fifty-seventh street, until the middle of May, when they will go to their country place, Delbarton, in Morristown, N. J.

Dinners will be given on Saturday by Mrs. Henry Clows and Mrs. J. Todhunter Thompson.

Howard Taylor will give a dinner for men at his home, 19 East Sixty-fourth street, on March 3.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

ELABORATE preparations have been made for the Dixie dinner and Colonial ball to be given to-morrow night at the Hotel Astor under the auspices of the New York Southern Society. The guests have been asked to come in Colonial costumes, and there will be a stately minuet danced by some of the members of the society. The dinner will be served in the large ballroom at several tables, each representing a Southern State.
The entertainment is in charge of Bruce L. Rice, John G. Lonsdale and Walton H. Marshall. On the floor committee are Chester Alexander, Phelan Beall, William McCombs, Rupert Taylor, C. C. Matthei, David L. Luke, Kendrick J. T. Stewart, W. A. Furrington, Sidney Perry, William S. Hutchinson, George K. Hartman, Walter Dixon, Charles O. Maas, Percy S. Mallott, Coleman Morgan, J. M. Hartfield, William B. Davis, Arthur W. Pennington, Archibald R. Watson, Charles Baskerville, H. B. Grubbs, Samuel McRoberts, Alfred Haywood, A. N. Carr, Stephen L. Snowden, John Beatty, John G. Lonsdale, Frank L. Polk, Terry Smith, Stuart G. Gibbons, John P. East, Paul McCoy and Charles F. Moore.

The patronesses are Misses Robert Adamson, George Gordon Battle, William D. Buckner, Charles Baskerville, William A. Barber, Joseph Glendinning, Thomas S. Fuller, Stuart G. Gibbons, John G. Lonsdale, George M. La Monte, Walter H. Marshall, Robert C. Miles, Walter W. McCorkle, George W. Keville, Isaac R. Oeland, Bedell Parker, Junius Parker, Rufus L. Patterson, Theodore H. Price, John E. Page, Bruce L. Rice, Allan A. Ryan, Upton Singmaster, Vernon S. Sullivan, Augustus Van Wyck and Archibald R. Watson.

A number of important affairs are scheduled by the Rubinstein Club in the near future. The second evening concert will be held on Tuesday evening at the Waldorf-Astoria. The programme will be rendered by Miss Beatrice Harrison, soprano, Miss Margaretta, who will sing a cantata, in seven parts, called "A Page From Homer," and the pilgrims' chorus from "Tannhauser." Mrs. William R. Chapman, the president, will receive during the intermission and after the programme there will be supper in the Rose Room.

The club will give a reception and musical on March 21 to celebrate president's day. The presidents of clubs will be the guests of the club and will occupy the platform at one end of the ballroom with Mrs. Chapman during the programme. The artists will be Miss Florence Hinkle, Miss Harriet Ware, Miss Kate Vannah, Mrs. Lilla Ormond-Dennis, James Overton and Bidlar Leete.

On Monday afternoon, March 2, the club will have another card party and on Tuesday evening, March 3, a Rubinstein assembly. Mrs. W. H. H. Amerman will give a large theatre party on March 4 for the president, Mrs. William R. Chapman, taking her guests to see "Grumpy."

The second concert in a series of four for the benefit of the Free Industrial School and Home for Crippled Children will be held to-morrow at the Plaza. The artists will be Mrs. Louise B. Voigt, soprano, Mrs. Nevada Van Der Veer, contralto; Carl Morris, barytone; Paul Kiefer, cellist, and Charles Gilbert Spruce, accompanist.

For the benefit of the Philanthropic Hospital a musicale and dance will be given at the Hotel Knickerbocker on Saturday evening, March 14. It will be under the auspices of the aid society of the hospital and the proceeds from the entertainment will go toward lifting the mortgage of the institution. Tickets may be obtained from the secretary of the society, Miss Theresa Mayer, 162 West Eighty-third street, or David Cohen, 36 Wall street.

The Bel Canto Club, Mrs. Beatrice Goldie president, will hold its regular monthly reception on Saturday at the Waldorf-Astoria. The programme will be rendered by Miss Ethel Plag, pianist; George Sharnsmith, barytone; Miss Lezardie Mayer, soprano, and Miss Pauline Maudslayi, who will give some monologues. There will be an address on "Patriotism in Art" by Mrs. Goldie. The guests will be received by Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., Miss Fannie Goldie, Miss Margaret Hoburg and Mrs. H. J. Ekmann.

Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips gave a luncheon followed by bridge on Wednesday at Delmonico's to the patronesses of the New Assembly Dances, of which she is the organizer. The prizes for the bridge consisted of parasols and broadened pin-cushions. The class will have a meeting on Tuesday and an extra dance on Friday, April 17.

takes full charge of little children daily while their mothers are at work.

A Colonial card party will be given to-morrow evening at the residence of Miss M. Cecilia Gaffney, 280 Riverside Drive, under the auspices of the International Residence Association for Students and Travellers. Miss Gaffney is president of the association. Mrs. Russell Law, vice-president; Mrs. H. N. Gibson, treasurer; Miss Helene Alpers, secretary, and Miss Esther Frances Gaffney, auditor.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Washington Heights Hospital, Mrs. Adolph Heller, president, will hold its eighth annual meeting and musicale on Thursday at the Waldorf-Astoria. The musical programme will be rendered by Miss Simone de Mauborget, soprano, and the Russian Trio, composed of Eugene Bernstein, pianist; Michel Bernstein, violinist, and Arthur Bernstein, cellist. Mayor John Purroy Mitchell will be the guest of honor and will speak on the work of the auxiliary, as will Miss Mary Garrett Hay and Mrs. Belle de Rivera.

The other officers of the auxiliary are Mrs. Jeremiah C. Lyons, first vice-president; Mrs. Ernest A. Limberg, second vice-president; Mrs. S. Marcus Harris, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Wise, financial secretary; Mrs. Henry Wolff, recording secretary and Mrs. Elsie John Ludvig, corresponding secretary.

A musicale was given by the Clio Club on Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. J. Henry McKimley, 157 West Seventy-first street. There were songs by Miss Lena Conking, Miss Golden McCune and J. Henry McKimley, and duets by Miss Janet Russell and Mrs. Greiner. Miss Russell also played on the balalaika.

During Lent a series of five talks will be given by Miss Helen Varick Boswell at the residence of Mrs. Edward James Gavegan, 203 West End avenue. They will be on March 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31, and will be on "Pressing Problems—Social, Industrial and Governmental." Tea will be served after each lecture.

For the benefit of the Philanthropic Hospital and Industrial Club, Mrs. Frank E. Wise president, a charity tea will be given on Friday afternoon in the apartment of Mrs. Frank W. Noxon in Euclid Hall, Broadway and Eighty-fifth street.

The first of the subscription dances of Mrs. Edward Fielding-Ekins was given Tuesday evening at the Plaza Hotel. They will continue indefinitely on Tuesday evenings. Among the subscribers are

Mr. and Mrs. William McCune, Mrs. Albert Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lipman, Dr. and Mrs. Carroll Dunham, Allison Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. William Peckham, the Misses Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Horstman, Mrs. L. Bradford Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Learned, Mr. and Mrs. John Braun and Capt. Charles Wilson.

A number of ladies met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William H. Putnam on Columbia Heights to assist in the development of the School Art League's work in Brooklyn.

The meeting was organized by Mrs. Putnam, assisted by Mrs. Walter H. Crittenden, and was addressed by Mrs. John W. Alexander and Mrs. William H. Fox, who explained the steps which it is proposed to take in developing cooperation between the schools and the art museums. Dr. Haney spoke of the development of the junior membership of the league in the high schools.

Committees were appointed to assist in the general reception which the league is to hold on April 3 at the spring Academy exhibition.

Among those present were Mrs. George D. Pratt, Mrs. Luke Vincent Lockwood, Miss Morse, Mrs. James L. Morgan, Mrs. Samuel Duryea, Mrs. Robert Low Fierpont, Mrs. Edward Charles Blum, Mrs. St. Clair McKelway, Mrs. George White Field, Mrs. Charles W. Ives and Mrs. Stuart Gager.

Miss Coralie Hagedorn gave a children's party on Friday afternoon at the Marie Antoinette. It was a costume affair, her young guests coming as fairies, clowns, Japanese, butterflies and Pierrots and Pierrettes. They included the Misses Margorie Magraw, Jane Goodlove, Helen Dierlin, Betty Buchner, Mary Demorest, Barbara La Wood, Cornelia Carney, Helene de Lau Marzand, Adrienne Cossett, Winifred Towne, Kathleen Towne, Pauline Pearce, Maxine Ross and Eunice Smith, and Masters Frederick Lee, James Witherspoon, Henry Schudiz, Tom Buchner, Ellery Denison, Elmer Corthill, Frank Cochran, William Goodlove, Clarence Roberts and August Zinger.

Mrs. William E. Corey has sent out invitations for a reception on Thursday afternoon in the belvedere of the Hotel Astor. There will be a dancing contest of the maxixe, tango and onestep for prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob George Fischer of 114 West Eighty-eighth street have announced.

Continued on Seventh Page.

Handwritten signature: H. Simonson
516 Fifth Ave., New York

A visit to our Salon is always a visit to a show place. There is no obligation to buy involved in a such an invitation. "The Bandeau" Coiffure—our very latest—is the newest and last of a fascinating line of some sixty different Coiffures. Our booklet, "Modes of Distinction," is for those who cannot call. Send for it.
We are also showing Paris' latest whim—colored Wigs and Hair Pieces matched to the gown. Shown on lifelike figures in our Salon.
A Novelty indeed!